Prager Erklärung

The First Step to Succeed in European Parliament Elections 2014

The assembled European Pirates signed below agreed on the following:

I.

We intend to run in the elections to the European Parliament in the year 2014.

II.

We declare the intent

a) to have a common election program included in the individual programs of the respective parties,

b) to coordinate our election campaigns,

c) to cooperate closely in the European Parliament on the realisation of our common program.

III.

The common program shall consist of components regarding European policies that have been approved by participating parties.

Every participating party will be able to set forth its opinion and report the state of its procedure regarding every proposal.

IV.

We agree to establish a political party at European level [1].

V.

We propose this declaration for ratification to the competent bodies of the European Pirate Parties.
